World E.L. Doctorow

2012-01-24 From a master

letters comes an enthralling collection of brilliant short fiction about people who, as E. L. Doctorow notes in his Preface, are somehow “distinct from their surroundings—people in some sort of contest with the prevailing world.” Containing six unforgettable stories that have never appeared in book form, and a selection of previous classics, All the Time in the World is resonant with the mystery, tension, and moral investigation that distinguish the fiction of E. L. Doctorow.

All the Time in the World Caroline Angell 2016-07-12 An unforgettable debut
about a young woman's choice between the future she's always imagined and the people she's come to love.
Charlotte, a gifted and superbly trained young musician, has been blindsided by a shocking betrayal in her
promising career when she takes a babysitting job with the McLeans, a glamorous Upper East Side Manhattan family.
At first, the nanny gig
is just a way of tiding herself over until she has licked her wounds
and figured out her next move as a composer in New York. But, as it turns out, Charlotte is naturally good with children and becomes as deeply fond of the two little boys as they are of her. When an unthinkable tragedy

leaves the McLeans bereft, Charlotte is not the only one who realizes that she's the key to holding little George and Matty's world together. Suddenly, in addition to life's usual puzzles, such as sorting out which suitor is her best match, she finds herself with an
impossible choice
between her life-long dreams and the torn-apart family she's come to love. By turns hilarious, sexy, and
wise, Caroline Angell's remarkable and generous debut is the story of a young woman's discovery of the things that matter most.

Building New Banjos for an Old-Time World

Richard Jones-Bamman
2017-09-11 Banjo music possesses a unique power to evoke a bucolic, simpler past. The artisans who build banjos for old-time music stand at an unusual crossroads "asked to meet the modern musician's needs while retaining the nostalgic qualities so fundamental to the banjo's sound and mystique. Richard Jones-Bamman ventures into workshops and old-time music communities to explore how banjo builders practice their art. His interviews and long-time personal immersion in the musical culture shed light on long-overlooked aspects of banjo making. What is the banjo builder's role in the creation of a specific musical community? What techniques go into the styles of instruments they create? Jones-Bamman explores these questions and many others while sharing the ways an inescapable sense of the past undergirds the performance and enjoyment of old-time music. Along the way he reveals how antimodernism remains integral to the music's appeal and its making.

The World's Number One, Flat-Out, All-Time Great, Stock Car Racing Book Jerry Bledsoe 2019-02-01 On Labor Day weekend of 1972, journalist Jerry Bledsoe hooked up with the stock car racing circuit to begin research for his first book. The result of his efforts, first published in 1975, has been called the classic work on stock car racing. Bledsoe captures the beginnings of the modern NASCAR era, a time when legends like Richard Petty, David Pearson, Bobby Allison, and the Wood brothers ruled. It was also a time when independent drivers like Wendell Scott (NASCAR's first African American driver) and Larry Smith could build a car in their garages during the week and race on Sunday alongside King Richard.

With levels of access impossible to achieve today, Bledsoe is not only in the pits and garages with the drivers, but also is alongside their family driving to the next race in a van piled high with ice chests filled with sandwiches and fried chicken. He digs into the sport's rough and rowdy history and shines a light into its nooks and crannies, uncovering the forgotten role that women drivers played in creating this most macho of motorsports. And then there are the fans. There's Red Robinson, the self-proclaimed "World's Number One Stock Car Racing Fan," who collects racing beauty queens the way some people collect stamps. And the fans camped out in the infield at Darlington, the biggest, wildest, whoopingest, holleringest, drinkingest,

gamblingest,
carousingest, knock-
down, fall-out blowout held in the South. More than a book about racing, this is a close-up look at a cultural phenomenon that illuminates America and the South. In 1965, Tom Wolfe called racer
Junior Johnson "the last American hero." "The World's Number One, All-
Time Great, Stock Car Racing Book" shows that a decade later there were still plenty of heroes circling the track with no signs of them disappearing
anytime soon.

All the Time in the World Lisa Broderick 2021-10-26 You don't have to be a victim of time any longer. No matter how much we try to plan ahead and organize our to-do lists, everyone seems to face the same universal struggle: there's never enough time. But what if time, that supposedly linear, inevitable phenomenon, isn't what you think it is? What if you could actually have all the time in the world—and more? With her groundbreaking book, All the Time in the World, researcher Lisa Broderick reveals the new science of time so you can master it for yourself. Drawing from physics, quantum law, and psychological theory, Broderick will help you shift your fixed constructs around time into something more fluid and malleable. Then, with dozens of step-by-step practices, you'll learn to put theory into action and become the master of your own experience of time. Highlights include: Learn powerful, science-based practices for stretching and bending time to meet your personal needs Understand the quantum laws that govern our experience of time Explore the moments you've already felt time "slowing down"—and learn to consciously create this experience on demand Why time is not the unchanging linear property of human experience we believe it to be Flow states and getting in the zone—how to alter your perceptions, increase focus, and accomplish your goals Healing the past by "time traveling" through your perceptions How "experiencing your life in advance" can help you manifest the future outcomes Discover why upgrading your relationship with time is the secret to creating the reality you desire and living without limitations "Our ability to influence our experience of time is the key to doing what we are here to do," writes Broderick. "As you

liberate yourself from the illusion of time as we know it, you will become a confident

creator of your own
reality. You have all the time in the world.”
